BODY FOUND NEAR SPOT TOLD BY CLAIRVOYANT

From River After Water Had

Been Dragged. ARREST IS MADE BY POLICE

Joe Harris Held on Suspicion of Being Implicated in Death of Malone-Splendid Easter Collection Received at Market Street Church.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PETERSBURG, VA., April 5 .- The hody of Algle Malone, colored, who disappeared under mysterious and suspicious circumstances five weeks ago from his home in Pocahontas, was re-covered to-day not far from the spot at which a clairvoyant had recently told friends of the decedent it had been thrown into the river by persons with whom he had had trouble. While men-vere engaged in dragging around the designated spot with large hooks, the body was found floating near the Pocahontas Bridge by Master Fittz, a white boy, who was on the bank throwing rocks into the stream and watching his dog plunging into the watching his dog plunging into the water. He saw the dog catch hold of something, which proved to be a man's body partly submerged, and immediately gave an alarm. The body was found to be ciothed and in an overall, it was taken to an undertakers, extall, It was taken to an undertakers' estab-lishment to be cleaned of the mud which covered it, by order of the coroner, and prepared for examination for evidence of violence. The body was very much swollen, and if ever it had been tied up and a weight attached to it, as described by the clair-voyant, the fastenings had been burst. Hundreds of people gathered at the river bank to get a view of the body. In this connection, it may be stated that Joe Harris, colored, was arrested to-day, by order of Chief Ragland, on Suspecion of being implicated in the murder of Algie Malone. He will be held to await the coroner's inquest. Probably other arrests may follow There has always been a suspecion that Malone was murdered, and, as the clairvoyant said, his body thrown into The strong eddies and back currents in the river may have moved

WILL INVITE PRESIDENT

Ellyson to Hend Delegation Which Is to Ask Wilson to Reunion.

The formal invitation of the United Confederate Veterans to President Wil-son to attend the big reunion in Rich-mord June 1 to 3, inclusive, will be extended by a delegation headed by a member of grandchildren, nieces and Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson next Thursday.

The appointment for the meeting of the President with the Virginians was made yesterday. The President will probably spend one day in Richmond and deliver an address to the veterans.

Advices from Washington relate that the foreign affairs are not too accurate. if foreign affairs are not too acute at that time it is quite possible that the President will make the trip. He has been invited to participate in the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in Washington late in September, and has promised to attend. This leads to the belief that he
